Washington State Fraternal Order of Police Labor Coalition

About

The Labor Coalition is a non-profit organization dedicated to the betterment of law enforcement personnel and will accomplish this goal through the representation of its members in collective bargaining and other labor relations matters.

The Washington State FOP has designed a comprehensive plan for the purpose of improving the wages, hours and working conditions of its members. In addition to reliable, proximate and educated labor services providers the FOP also provides a legal defense plan for individual officers to cover administrative, civil and criminal.

Who is eligible?

Any group of employees located within the state of Washington which constitutes an appropriate bargaining unit in accordance with perc guidelines within a law enforcement or other related agency is eligible for membership in the labor coalition.

Washington Fraternal Order of Police (WAFOP)

Founded in 1996 WAFOP is the most inclusive professional association for law enforcement officers in Washington State and across the nation. Representing a diverse number of agencies and over 2,600 officers in the Washington State and over 300,000 nationwide is the one voice for all of law enforcement.

*All pricing is related to group enrollment. For more information on individual legal defense plan see www.foplegal.com
