Washington State Fraternal Order of Police Labor Coalition

About

The Washington State Fraternal Order of Police Labor Coalition (WAFOPLC) is a non-profit organization dedicated to the betterment of law enforcement personnel and will accomplish this goal through the representation of its members in collective bargaining and other labor relations matters.

The WAFOPLC has designed a comprehensive plan for the purpose of improving the wages, hours and working conditions of its members. In addition to reliable, regionally located and educated labor services providers the FOP also provides a legal defense plan for individual officers to cover administrative, civil and criminal.

The dollars you invest into the WAFOPLC stay right here in Washington state to support the betterment of the law enforcement profession for your fellow officers and to build a robust law enforcement labor voice statewide.

Who is eligible?

Any group of employees located within the state of Washington which constitutes an appropriate bargaining unit in accordance with perc guidelines within a law enforcement or other related agency is eligible for membership in the labor coalition.

WAFOPLC participants are required to enroll in the full FOP Legal Defense Plan which provides administrative, civil and criminal coverage for individual officers.

Washington Fraternal Order of Police (WAFOP)

Founded in 1996 WAFOP is the most inclusive professional association for law enforcement officers in Washington State and across the nation. Representing a diverse number of agencies and over 2,800 officers in Washington State and over 300,000 nationwide. The FOP is the one voice for all of law enforcement.

*All pricing is related to group enrollment. For more information on individual rates for the legal defense plan visit www.foplegal.com
